Some More Facts About The Bow Wong Wui

L. Yaknam Lamsai of Wing Wo Tai & Co., received a letter from a friend in China by the last steamer from the Orient, telling of the action taken against the members of his family by the Chinese government.

Mr. Lamsai's people made their home in Tong Gar, a little village a short distance from Canton. Having received information that Mr. Lamsai was a Bow Wong, the government sent eighty troops from Canton to Tong Gar to make his people prisoners. All they found was his grandmother, aged 85, his father and grandfather having left for another place a short time before. The old lady was arrested and thrown into prison, no respect being shown for her years in the treatment she received. After the arrest, the soldiers looted the home and carried away everything of value.

Mr. Lamsai does not believe his father and mother will be caught. He has sent in a petition to the government asking that his old grandmother be released but it is improbable that this will have any effect.

The government sent soldiers in search of the family of C. K. Ai of this city, another Bow Wong, but they found that all the members had gone to Macao some little time before. This makes the arrest of Mr. Ai's family impossible.

Several Bow Wongs of the city were seen yesterday after the talk with Mr. Lamsai. Asked if the Chinese Consul, Yang Wei Pin, stood in any danger on account of this action in sending information to the Chinese government, all with the exception of one remained silent. This one said: "I should not wish to be in the Consul's boots if any more arrests of relatives of the Hawaiian Bow Wongs in China are made. There are some men in the society who would not hesitate to retaliate."

Accurate information regarding the strength of the Bow Wongs has been secured by the members of the society here. It seems that sixty per cent of the Chinese in China and ninety per cent in foreign countries, are in favor of reform. Should the Bow Wongs decide to rise against the government at any moment, they could do so with telling effect. As it is, they prefer to gain their objects by peaceful measures if possible. If it so turns out that force will be necessary, force will be used.

NEW HOTEL AT WAIALUA

Building to Be Started in the Near Future.

Charles David to Be Manager—Lease of Fine Lands Secured—Matter of Liquor License.

A new hotel will soon be started at Waiailua. The promoters do not care to have their names mentioned just yet. It is sufficient to say, however, that the backers of the scheme are men of money who see a great future in the hotel business down the road. Work on the proposition has been going on quietly for several weeks and now, the men who are pushing it, have secured the lands they wanted, so that the coast is now clear.

The new hotel is to be a two-story affair near the present hotel of Charles David, directly opposite the Waiailua depot. It will be arranged particularly for the comfort of the guests from the city and will command a fine view of the surrounding country. It is understood that the capitalization will be placed at $10,000 and that the shares will be $10 each.

A lease of land all about the present hotel of Charles David has been secured so that cottagers may be put up at a future date, if found necessary.

David, who will be the manager, already has a liquor license, so that matter is settled. He and the other promoters have decided to put the saloon far away from the hotel proper so that, in case of any rowdiness, the guests will be in no way disturbed thereby.

The promoters think they have an excellent scheme and will hasten the building of the new hotel.

STOLE DR. WOOD'S PEACHES.

Manuel Gomes, Jr., appeared in the Police Court this forenoon on the charge of larceny in the second degree and, after a severe lecture by Judge Wilcox, was sent home with a warning. The father was also told that a sound spanking might do his offspring some good.

It seems that for several days past a gang of Portuguese boys have been stealing fruit from the home of Dr. Wood on the slopes of Punchbowl. The rascals were chased out several times but they would return. Yesterday, Mrs. Wood saw several of the boys divesting her peach trees of both ripe and green fruit and, summoning her servants, she made after them.

All the boys with the exception of Gomes, succeeded in getting away but he was so far up one tree that he could not make the time to either did. He was held, the police were telephoned and Master Manuel was locked up for a short time. Later on, his father bailed him out.

All Persons Can Help.

Editor Evening Bulletin:—The Humane Educator asks the aid of all citizens in preventing cruelty to animals. The Hawaiian Society has a humane officer who will promptly respond to any call. If teams are observed to be overworked or abused, lame horses made to work, a call by telephone to the police station will be promptly responded to by the Society's officer. Please send name, number of wagon or description of animal abused, also your own name, which will not be revealed without permission. The Hawaiian Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals protects all persons who seek to help them in caring for those who cannot help themselves.

Kindly make note of the above in your valuable paper, and oblige.

Yours sincerely,
HELEN CRAFT.

Ran From a Policeman.

Jas. Corn was arrested last night on the charge of assault and battery on Otto Necond. It seems that Corn had been consulting John Harleycorn too often and come off the worst for the encounters. He struck Necond full in the face without any provocation whatever and upon being approached by a police officer, started on a run for the water front. Corn explained to the judge that he wanted to get away. There were, of course, smiles all over the court room.

The Ranch Shows Fair Profit Despite Drought and Lantana.

Mr. Pain Discharged for Trespassing on Streets—J. P. Dias Is Well Backed for Portuguese Interpreter.

Judge Humphreys has set Harrison vs. Magoon and others for trial on Tuesday next. Judge Stanley has rendered an oral decision in Republic vs. W. H. Pain, "unauthorized excavation on public road." The decision of the District Court is reversed and Mr. Pain discharged. Attorney General Dole for prosecution, Paul Neumann for defendant. The cause of action was the laying of rails for the Hawaiian Tramways Co. in King street a few months ago.

J. P. Dias has applied for the position of Portuguese interpreter to the courts of the Territory of Hawaii. His petition is endorsed by Sam F. Chillingworth, Frank Brown, J. M. Davidson, Lyle A. Dickey, J. T. De Bolt, W. L. Wilcox and Paul Neumann.

H. Focke and Cecil Brown, trustees of the estate of James Gay, deceased, have filed their fifth annual account. They received $12,468.91 and paid out $12,558.79, leaving a balance due them of $90.78. The trustees have also submitted their annual report, from which the following extracts are made:

"The trustees have entered into an agreement with the Waiailua Agricultural Co., Ltd., whereby some 800 acres of land (formerly used as pasture, and only good as such for some five or six months of the year) is to be placed in cane, and in lieu of rental 5 per cent of the sugar is to be delivered or, if sold, accounted for by that company. This arrangement will in all probability produce an income of from say $6000 to $8000 a year, depending on the price of sugar."

Statistics of the branch show it to have at present 215 head of cattle, 28 horses and 3 mules. The trustees say the long drought has decreased the area of grazing land fit for support of stock. A net balance of $4420.76 is shown in favor of the ranch.

"The heaviest item of expense for the year has been in the cutting and clearing of lantana, upon which has been expended $1457.82."

J. O. Carter, attorney in fact for Liliuokalani, petitions to have placed on record a deed of certain properties made by Anheka Kekauloiki to Liliuokalani on December 28, 1894, the grantor having died without having acknowledged the execution of the instrument. The witnesses to the deed were Charles T. Gulick, now deceased, and Sam. Nowlin. A hearing of the petition appointed for this morning did not take place.

Judge Stanley has appointed Henry Smith guardian of Naomi Miriam Lazarus, minor, under $1000 bond.

Kalohua Was Beaten.

Kalohua, charged with assault and battery on Ah Moon, was reprimanded and discharged by Judge Wilcox in the Police Court this forenoon.

On Wednesday night the native went into a Chinese gambling den and grabbed the money on the table of some of the Chinamen while a game was in progress. The Chinese grabbed what they could find about the room and beat the native into insensibility. In attempting to defend himself, he struck Ah Moon. Kalohua was sent to the hospital and only got out this morning. He explained to Judge Wilcox that he told a policeman about the game and that man, being unable to get away, he decided to arrest the Chinaman himself and grabbed the money as evidence.

Kane Assault Case.

The case of Kane, charged with assault on a Chinaman along the Tantalus road a couple of weeks ago, came up in the Police Court this forenoon but was continued until another date on account of the inability of the complaining witness to be present.

Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth said that, according to the statements of the physicians at the hospital, the Chinaman would be unable to get out of bed for a month, so serious are his wounds.

It was then suggested by Judge Wilcox that the two, with the attorney for the defense and the prisoner, go to the Queen's Hospital some afternoon next week to take the testimony of the Chinaman. In the meantime, Kane will have to remain a prisoner at the police station.

NO SALARY FOR SERVICES

Auditor Austin Withholds Pay From Superintendent Atkinson.

Remodeling of Education Headquarters—Accommodation for Officers—Better Arrangements for Book Business.

Auditor H. C. Austin cannot see his way clear to authorizing the payment of salary to Alatau T. Atkinson, Superintendent of Public Instruction. It is a new office under the Territory, but succeeds that of Minister of Public Instruction under the Republic, which was held jointly with the portfolio of Minister of Foreign Affairs. The auditor rules it would appear, that the salary of that double ministerial position attached to the foreign affairs branch.

President McKinley's instructions as to the salaries of Territorial officials is that, until the Legislature provides otherwise, they shall be paid out of appropriations for corresponding offices under the Republic. The President declined to interfere further.

Mr. Atkinson is making no fuss about the matter, but, on being met by a Bulletin reporter at the Education office, he answered a casual reference to the matter. He went no further, however, than to turn up the law relating to the former double office, and show that the folios of the statute were headed alternately, "Minister of Foreign Affairs" and "Minister of Public Instruction." It seemed to him that his office corresponded, agreeably to the President's ruling, to practically all of Minister Cooper's office which survived the transfer of sovereignty on August 12, 1898. Hawaii has had no foreign relations since then.

Mr. Atkinson is not worrying over the matter. He is confident that the Legislature will pay him suitably for services rendered, if the ruling of the auditor is not altered in the meantime.

Under Mr. Atkinson's supervision the Education headquarters have been remodeled in keeping with the vigorous administration of the department which the new era demands.

Opening from the main corridors of the Judiciary building one side, and from the secretary's office on the Queen street side, is the Superintendent's office. This being a large apartment will also be the board room for the meetings of the Commissioners.

In the secretary's office is a private room segregated with half partitions where the secretary may have quiet for intricate work and privacy for official consultations.

The old book room at the end of the back veranda will be furnished for the use of the inspector and the normal instructor when they have work to do at headquarters.

Two small rooms off the secretary's office have been prepared as the book repository. They have increased shelf room and permit of a great improvement in order, system and convenience. They are also secluded, instead of having the stock exposed to pilfering as before. Not to say that there has ever been any pilfering, but for such there undoubtedly was opportunity.

Mr. Towne of Minnesota.

Mr. Towne is the vainest politician in the country. His bump of self-esteem is as large as a lemon. Nor is he without reason for his conceit. The people of his district made a hero of him half a dozen years ago, and two successive defeats have not seriously impaired his popularity. He can still attract most elected Congressmen. He can still carry Duluth by a thousand votes.

"Charlie Towne," as he is affectionately called throughout his bailiwick, is a cultured, whole-souled, generous gentleman; a born politician, hence a "good mixer;" a good orator and writer, though rather ponderous; fond of logic and figures, and devoid of humor; a better expounder of the silver question, many people think, than his friend Bryan; a man that makes friends and holds them fast; and, oddly enough, the thinnest skinned politician in this or any other country.

Towne's skin is so thin that the dullest shaft of criticism pierces it. He is one of the kind of men that stop their newspaper when it dares to smile at their vagaries. Towne's exchange list is limited because he has stopped nearly all the papers that he subscribed for. Next to the silver question, his pet mania is that Mark Hanna is trying to establish a monarchy in this country. Only trepanning could remove this idea.—Chicago Journal.

OLAA LAND SETTLEMENT

Decision As to Rights to Take Up Land Reached Monday.

Turns on Attorney General View—Large Amount of Property Available—Tis Valuable to Holders and Territory.

Something definite will probably be done at the Governor's council on Monday regarding the opening of Olaa lands to settlement. It was expected that the Attorney General would yesterday have rendered the opinion requested of him, as to the right of aliens to take up public lands in the Territory. He, however, asked for more time.

Commissioner J. F. Brown said today that, apart from the pending question, the lands would be offered to settlement in the manner prescribed by the Hawaiian land law. The sales would be by auction as heretofore, and conditions of settlement be prescribed.

The purchasers could raise sugar cane for adjacent mills, or any other product they desired.

Mr. Brown, in answer to a question, said there were 15,000 or 20,000 acres of land in Olaa available for settlement. The opening up of so much new land for agriculture therefore means a great deal for the island of Hawaii and indeed the whole Territory.

All Co. F Men.

The statement in a morning paper that Co. F team to shoot with the police this afternoon was the pick of 400 marksmen is taken by Co. F to indicate cold feet among their opponents. The men who make up Capt. Johnson's team have been members of Co. F. N. G. H. all the way from three months to seven years. It is possible these men are the picked marksmen of the Guard but they are nevertheless regular members of Co. F and were not enlisted for the particular purpose of shooting with the police. The members of the team are: S. Johnson, J. W. W. A. Neeley, J. Ferreira, G. Gere, P. Burnett, W. Storey, W. Peterson, C. Rhodes, J. Gouvea, J. Silva, A. Fitzsimmons.

THE NATURALIZATION LIST

Seventeen New American Citizens Made This Morning.

All Government Cases Must Have "Territory" Instead of "Republic" in Titles—Mr. Magoon a Substitute Justice.

The Supreme Court this morning admitted the following named as citizens of the United States: Henry Gustav Froese, Frank F. Fernandes, F. S. McPherson, F. W. K. Kelle, Temple Bourke, Charles Pedersen, Willie G. A. Siebert, John Buckley, John Brown, Theodore A. Simpson, Henry Klemme, Charles Crozier, Charles J. Campbell, William John White, Ernst L. Berndt, B. F. Beardmore, Geo. F. Benton—17. Chief Justice Frear and Justice Galbraith presided the place of Justice Perry not being filled, for the naturalization proceedings. J. Alfred Magoon, attorney, was called as substitute justice for the hearing of an appeal case afterward.

The Marshall libel case was argued and submitted yesterday. W. O. Smith appeared for the Republic of Hawaii, and J. T. De Bolt for the defendant appellant. This case turns on the questions of whether the Constitution's sway over Hawaii began with annexation, and if so were the refusal of a jury trial in the District Court, the placing of defendant on trial in the Circuit Court without indictment by a grand jury, and his conviction by less than twelve jurors, constitutional.

At noon the Court was hearing the appeal of Lo Kam from conviction of being found unlawfully on the premises of another at night. Andrews for prosecution; Chillingworth for defendant.

The Supreme Court has ruled that all Government cases on the calendar shall have the word "Territory" substituted for "Republic" in their titles.

ANTEDATES CIVILIZATION.

Before civilized man had heard of dreamed of it, Kickapoo Indian Oil was healing the wounds, relieving and curing the aches and pains of the Red Man. Before civilized man had heard of it, it kept the natives in perfect health. And since civilized man has known it, the category of our es has become voluminous. No other medicine has made such cures; because Kickapoo Indian Oil is nature's remedy, and nature stands back of it. Your druggist has it, or can get it. Somebody's Pipe Dream but Not Capt. Macfarlane's

Captain Clarence Macfarlane has read with deep interest the various announcements in official newspapers that Commodore T. W. Hobron was to sail the yacht La Paloma in a race to Waianae today. Macfarlane has sometimes been filled with alarm for fear that he might be under the influence of a Molah, and thereby misled into the idea that he owned the La Paloma and had authority to sail her or not to sail her as suited his individual fancy or pleasure. To convince himself that he was not dreaming Macfarlane went on board the yacht to see if he could find Hobron in possession. He then got copies of all the articles about the intended race and submitted them to a kahuna to find out if there was anything in it. Failing to get any satisfaction Clarence dressed in his best suit of clothes, mounted the poop deck of the Paloma. With one foot resting on the rudder post, the other impaled on the bowsprit, his right hand resting on his stomach, the left pointing toward Lahaina and his eagle eye scanning the horizon, Captain Macfarlane gave formal notice that while he carried the right, title and ownership of the La Paloma in his inside pocket, no races would be sailed without his knowing it.

Macfarlane doesn't know about any race to Waianae. He hasn't heard anything about it except what he has read. In fact Captain and Mrs. Macfarlane will entertain a party of friends at their Pearl City home tomorrow forenoon. The party will sail down in the yacht La Paloma with Macfarlane at the wheel and return in a launch during the afternoon or evening.

In order that there might not be any misunderstanding in the future, Clarence stated this morning, "If anybody wants to race against the La Paloma I am ready for them. If anybody wants to run the yacht for me, they can take notice that I usually hire my owa men."

Vivas Had a Proviso.

J. M. Vivas was approached some days ago by a government representative to know if he would serve on the Board of Registration. Mr. Vivas consented to accept the position provided the Board met down town in the old post office building which is soon to be vacated by its tenants. This central location Mr. Vivas believed would be more acceptable to business men and people of the city generally. The representative concurred with Mr. Vivas but the latter never heard anything more of the appointment. This doesn't worry Mr. Vivas as he was not chasing the job, but he still holds to the belief, and has many supporters in it, that the Honolulu Hale will be the best place for the Board to hold its sessions in this city.
